HOW IT WORKS

Every Cook Book is going to have a different number of recipes - so please take this price list as a pricing guideline.

My food stylist and I shoot between 6-8 recipes per day, which is what my prices are based on.

There will also be extras to consider, such as crockery & cutlery hire and any other props we may need for your cook book.

I have many different styles of backgrounds and textures. I can also print specific patterns and colours to match your brand and style.

Every Shoot Includes:

Food Stylist

High Resolution Images on USB

Low Resolution Images, sized for instant upload on social media

Photography Brief - outlining full list of recipes, props, and photoshoot plan.
